(ii) after clause (a), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(aa) in the case of trade apprentices who have undergone institutional training in a school or institution affiliated to or recognised by the State Council of Technical Education or by any authority which the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette specify, have passed the trade tests conducted by the Board or State Council or authority, the period of apprenticeship training shall be such as may be prescribed;”

(iii) in clause (b), for the words “apprentices”, the words “trade apprentices” shall be substituted;

(iv) after clause (b), the following shall be inserted, namely:—

“(c) in the case of graduate or technical apprentices, the period of apprenticeship training shall be such as may be prescribed”

9. Amendment of section 8.—In section 8 of the principal Act,—

(i) for sub-section (1), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) The Central Government, after consulting the Central Apprenticeship Council, by notification in the Official Gazette, determine for each designated trade the ratio of trade apprentices to workers other than unskilled workers in that trade:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall be deemed to prevent any employer from engaging a number of trade apprentices in excess of the ratio determined under this sub-section.

(2) In determining the ratio under sub-section (1), the Central Government shall have regard to the facilities available for apprenticeship training under this Act in the designated trade concerned as well as to the facilities that may have to be made available by an employer for the training of graduate or technical apprentices, if any, in pursuance of any notification issued to him under sub-section (3A) by the Apprenticeship Adviser or such other person referred to in that sub-section.

(3) The Apprenticeship Adviser may, by writing, require an employer to engage such number of trade apprentices within the ratio determined by the Central Government for any designated trade in his establishment, to undergo apprenticeship training in that trade and the employer shall comply with such requisition:

Provided that in making any requisition under this sub-section, the Apprenticeship Adviser shall have regard to the facilities actually available in the establishment concerned.

(3A) The Central Apprenticeship Council or any other person not below the rank of an Apprenticeship Adviser authorised by the Central Apprenticeship Adviser in writing in this behalf shall have regard to—

LAW DEPARTMENT NOTIFICATION

Simla-2, the 31st October, 1973

No. 9-3/72-LR.—Whereas to prevent the commission of serious crime and to alleviate sufferings of those whose relations have been victims of serious crime and to assist the judicially separated women and those women whose husbands, having sufficient means, neglect or refuse to maintain them in getting their allowances from their husbands, it is necessary to provide legal aid to a limited extent;

Now, therefore, the Governor of Himachal Pradesh, is pleased to make the following rules for providing legal aid to the aforesaid persons:—

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Legal Aid to the Poor (Himachal Pradesh) Rules, 1973.

2. Definitions.—In these rules—

- (a) "Government Pleader" has the same meaning as is assigned to it in clause (7) of section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.
- (b) "Legal Aid" means the aid granted by the State Government for meeting the fee of the counsel or by providing counsel or giving such other aid as the State Government may think fit, to a poor person—
 - (i) who or for whose benefit an executor, administrator or representative of deceased persons under the Fatal Accidents Act, 1855, institutes or pursues or intends to institute or pursue an action or suit for damages under that Act; or
 - (ii) who has been the victim of a criminal assault and pursues or intends to pursue his remedy for damages for such assault; or
 - (iii) who, being a judicially separated woman or woman whose husband having sufficient means neglects or refuses to maintain her, intends to get an allowance from her husband for maintenance by instituting or pursuing an action or suit; or
 - (iv) in any other case which is considered suitable by the State Government for the grant of legal aid.
- (c) "Poor person" means a person who is certified by a Tehsildar to be a person whose average monthly income does not exceed three hundred rupees.

3. Certifying officers.—Tehsildars will be the certifying officers for the areas of their respective tehsils for the purpose of the certifying a person to be poor person entitled to the grant of legal aid under these rules.

4. Application for legal aid.—(1) A person desirous of obtaining legal aid shall make an application to the certifying officer of the area in which the applicant ordinarily resides, carries on business or personally works for gain.

(2) On receipt of an application under sub-rule (1), the certifying officer shall, after making such summary enquiry as he may think fit, record an order whether the applicant is a poor person or not.

(3) Whether the certifying officer records an order that the applicant is a poor person he shall forward the application along with his order to the Deputy Commissioner of the district.

(4) When the certifying officer records an order that the applicant is not a poor person the applicant shall be entitled to represent against such order to the Deputy Commissioner of the district within a period of thirty days from the date on which the order is communicated to him:

Provided that the Deputy Commissioner may, on sufficient cause being shown, entertain a representation after the expiration of such period.

(5) If, after making such further enquiry as he may deem fit, the Deputy Commissioner accepts the representation, he shall inform the petitioner and the certifying officer accordingly.

5. Order for granting legal aid.—(1) The Deputy Commissioner shall, on receipt of an application under sub-rule (3) of rule 4 or on acceptance of a representation under sub-rule (5) of that rule, as the case may be, satisfy himself that the request for the grant of legal aid is, in the circumstance of the case, justified and fulfilled the requirements of rule 6 and being so satisfied shall make an order specifying the nature and extent of legal aid which the applicant shall get:

Provided that in a case in which the value of the suit or the amount of compensation to be claimed—

- (i) exceeds ten thousand rupees but does not exceed twenty-five thousand rupees such an order shall not be made save with the prior approval of the Legal Remembrancer;
 - (ii) exceeds twenty-five thousand rupees such an order shall be made save with the prior approval of the State Government.
- (2) While granting legal aid the Deputy Commissioner shall consider whether it would be feasible to require the applicant to bear a specific portion of expenses of litigation and if he so considers the legal aid to be granted shall be conditional on the applicant first contributing his share of the expenses.

6. Conditions for grant of legal aid.—No legal aid shall be granted unless the Deputy Commissioner after taking the opinion in writing of the Government Pleader of the district, is satisfied that the subject matter of the suit, claim, action or proceedings to be instituted or pursued is reasonable and a good Prima facie case has been made out. If there is no Government Pleader for any district, the opinion of the Legal Remembrancer shall be obtained by the Deputy Commissioner.

7. Power of State Government to grant legal aid in suitable cases.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the proceeding rules, the State Government may in any case considered suitable by it for grant of legal aid direct the Deputy Commissioner of the district to grant such aid to any person and such person will be deemed to be a poor person and shall be granted legal aid in accordance with the direction of the Government.

(2) While sanctioning the legal aid to a person under sub-rule (1), the Government shall indicate in the sanction letter the income of such person along with the full facts of the case on the basis of which the legal aid is granted to him.

8. Engagement of counsel.—Where the legal aid to be granted to the providing of a counsel—

- (i) at places where a District Attorney, and Assistant District Attorney or a Additional Temporary Government Pleader is posted, the Legal Remembrancer shall engage one of them to get as such counsel;

(ii) at a place where no District Attorney, Assistant District Attorney or an Additional Temporary Government Pleader is posted, the Legal Remembrancer shall engage a counsel from the State list practising at that place, or, if that may not be feasible, any other suitable local counsel:—

Provided that nothing in clause (i) shall prevent the engaging of a counsel from the State list or a Local Counsel where the District Attorney, Assistant District Attorney, Additional Temporary Government Pleader cannot, for any reason, be so engaged.

9. Mode of payment in certain cases.—(1) Where legal aid to be granted is to be in cash for defraying court fee and other expenses, the Deputy Commissioner of the district shall arrange payment of the amount specified in the order to the poor person within a period of fifteen days of the issue of the order.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner of the district shall maintain the account of legal aid granted to and recovered from the poor person in Form 'A' appended to these rules, and shall furnish to the Legal Remembrancer a monthly statement of account of legal aid in that Form.

(3) The Legal Remembrancer shall consolidate all the monthly statement of account of legal aid received from the Deputy Commissioners and furnish such consolidated statement of account of legal aid to the Accountant General, Himachal Pradesh & Chandigarh in Form 'A'.

10. Agreement for the payment of legal aid.—Before a poor person is granted legal aid under these rules he shall enter into an agreement in Form 'B' with the State Government, with two sureties, for repayment of expenses incurred by the State Government in providing legal aid in the event of the suit, claim, action or proceedings brought by him being decreed or decided in his favour.

11. Counsel to report progress to Deputy Commissioner.—It shall be the duty of the Government pleader or the counsel engaged under these rules to take care that no notice is served, summons issued or petition presented without cause and to report to the Deputy Commissioner of the district and the Legal Remembrancer every six months the progress of suit, claim, action or proceedings.

12. Grounds for revocation of legal aid.—An order passed under rule 5 may be revoked on any of the following grounds, namely:—

(i) that the poor person is guilty of vexatious or improper conduct in the course of proceedings; or

(ii) that the means of the person to whom legal aid has been granted do not entitle him to receive such aid; or

(iii) that he has entered into an agreement with reference to the subject matter of the proceedings under which any person has obtained an interest as such.

13. Counsel not to accept from poor person anything other than fee allowed.—(1) A Government pleader or a counsel engaged under these rules shall not take or agree to take or seek to obtain from the poor person any fee, profit or reward for conduct of any action or suit brought by a poor person in pursuance of the legal aid given to him under these rules or for the conduct of any other proceedings ancillary to or connected with such action or suit.

(2) Immediately on the termination of any suit or action the Government pleader or counsel engaged under these rules, shall intimate to the Deputy Commissioner of the district the result of such suit or action.

14. Legal aid to cover appeals, reviews and revisions.—The provisions of these rules shall also apply to appeals, reviews and revisions arising out of the decision on an action or suit for which legal aid has been granted and no separate application shall be required to be made by the poor person for seeking legal aid for filing or presenting an appeal, review or revision to any court or before any authority:

Provided that no appeal, review or revision shall be filed, unless on the report made by the counsel or the Government Pleader, as the case may be, the Legal Remembrancer certifies that the case is fit for appeal, review or revision.

15. Repeal and savings.—The Legal Aid to the Poor (Punjab) Rules, 1959, as in force in the areas added to Himachal Pradesh under section 5 of the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966 are hereby repealed.

Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the said rules shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provision of these Rules.

FORM 'B'

An agreement made this _____ day of _____ between the Governor of Himachal Pradesh (hereinafter together with his successors and assigns called 'the Government' of the one part, (2) Shri _____ son of _____ resident of _____ (hereinafter together with his heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns called 'the grantee') of the second part, (3) Shri _____ son of _____ resident of _____ and (4) Shri _____ son of _____ resident of _____ (hereinafter jointly and severally called the sureties) of the third part.

WHEREAS the grantee, being a poor person, has applied to the Government for the grant of legal aid under the provisions of Legal Aid to the Poor (Himachal Pradesh) Rules, 1973 published in the Official Gazette under Law Department Notification No. _____ dated _____ (hereinafter, called the said rules).

AND WHEREAS the Government has agreed to grant legal aid to the grantee under the said rules in the form _____ (herein mentioned the form in which legal aid is to be granted i.e. by providing a counsel or by paying counsels' fee for defraying court fee or other expenses).

AND WHEREAS, rules 10 of the said rule provides that before a poor person is granted legal aid under these rules he shall enter into an agreement with the State Government with two sureties for repayment of the expenses incurred by the State Government, in providing legal aid, in the event of action or suit brought by him being decreed in his favour.

Now, therefore, this agreement witnesseth and the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:—

1. In consideration of the Government agreeing to grant legal aid to the grantee in the form mentioned above, the grantee and the sureties hereby covenant with the Government that in the event of the action or suit brought by the grantee being decreed in his favour they shall jointly and severally pay to the Government all the expenses incurred by it in providing the aforesaid legal aid.

2. The grantee and the sureties further agree that in event of an appeal, review or revision being filed in accordance with the provisions of the said rules in the action or suit in which legal aid is being granted they shall jointly and severally pay to the Government all such expenses that may be incurred by it in connection with such appeal, review or revision.

3. (1) The grantee shall utilize the amount granted as legal aid for the purpose for which it is granted and if he fails to do so the grantee and his sureties shall jointly and severally, be liable to pay back that amount to the Government along with interest at the rate of Rs. _____ per annum calculated from the date of receipt of the legal aid.

(2) The grantee shall render to the Deputy Commissioner account of the amount received by him in cash, within a period of two months of the decision of the case.

4. The liability of the sureties hereunder shall not be impaired or discharged by reason of time being granted or by any forbearance, act of commission of the Government, whether with or without the consent or knowledge of the sureties, nor shall it be necessary for the Government to exhaust its remedies against the grantee before proceeding against the sureties or any of them.

5. All disputes and difference arising out of it or in any way touching or concerning this agreement whatsoever shall be referred to the sole arbitration of _____ acting as such, at the time of reference. It will be no objection to such appointment that the arbitrator appointed is a Government servant that he had to deal with the matters to which this agreement relates and that in course of his duties as such Government servant he has expressed view on all or any of the matters in dispute or difference. The award of such arbitrator, shall be final and binding on the parties to this agreement.
